A Touch to Holiness

Your single finger touch is enough to feel the fragrance of holiness of SG Fr. Canisius now. Seeing the needs of time to spread the fragrance of holiness of SG Fr. Canisius Thekkekara CMI, the office for the canonization along with the Department of Pastoral Ministry and Media and many young energetic minds of the Devamatha Province Thrissur, made a shift from the world of just oral and scriptural tradition to the world of media and communication; a possible change in the era of change. The purpose behind this initiative is to spread the fragrance of his holiness to many more people all over the globe crossing the geographical and cultural barriers.

On the occasion of “All Saints Day” the new media platforms were launched during a solemn launching ceremony which was held at Devamatha Provincial House, Thrissur. There were mainly five different categories of media launching; namely, website, mobile app, book, Canisius Mozhikal and diary in digital format and launching of different media platforms to know more about SG Fr. Canisius.

Rev. Fr. Canisius was very particular in writing letters to persons and congregation. The good number of his letters is being made in audio format by Rev. Fr. Naveen Chaliserry CMI and Bro. Vigil Pengipambill CMI, and which is now available almost around 16 new digital media platforms like anchor, Google podcast, spotify, etc was launched by Rev. Fr. Jose Kallely CMI.

“Canisius Kootam” - a quiz series based on the person and life of Fr. Canisius was also well appreciated during this occasion. The quiz is being conducted in two sets now, one is for the Devamatha Fraternity, which is on the second last round and the other for the laity is at its fourth round. This quiz is being organized by Bro. Jerin Tharayil CMI and Bro. Joel Chiramal CMI, hearty congratulations dear reverend brothers for your tearless efforts.
